

WEEK #12

11/16/2020-11/20/2020

Return to Virtual Learning

We have made the decision to return to virtual learning effective November 16th 2020. The decision came after a conversation with our local health department and advising that to keep risk low, virtual is the better option. Our number one goal is to keep our students, their families, and our staff members safe so we chose this route. We will remain virtual until further notice.

Wednesday Tutoring

We have dedicated each Wednesday to tutoring , enrichment ,and time to complete make up work. Unfortunately, the majority of our scholars are not taking advantage of this time. Teachers send out tutoring invitations each week before that Wednesday to let students know they are invited to a tutoring session with that teacher to receive extra help. Teachers also have office hours wednesday mornings where students can just drop in the teachers zoom link and ask any questions they have or get extra help. Please check with your scholars and see which tutoring sessions they will be attending each Wednesday.
